The Retreat Center

The Retreat Center

The Retreat Center is a one story winterized retreat lodge, the only one of our buildings that has regular (non-bunk) beds. Groups desiring non-dormitory accommodations find this building suitable for their needs. The Retreat Center accommodates a maximum of 28 people, and it is divided into two wings. Each wing includes 3 bedrooms with three twin beds in each, and a larger end room with 5 twin beds. The main core of this building has two restroom facilities, full galley kitchen with a gas stove and oven, refrigerator, microwave, and coffee maker. The kitchen is stocked with pots, pans, dishes and utensils for cooking. The main room of The Retreat Center offers a lot of seating, wrap-around windows, tables ideal for dining or projects, and a stone fireplace.

Cabins

While the cabins are primarily used for housing during the summer conference program, they are available for retreat usage when weather permits: late Spring and early Fall. These cabins are located near shower and toilet facilities. Each cabin village provides housing for 40 people but full villages do not need to be reserved. Cabins can be reserved individually depending on how many people are in your group. Each double cabin provides two bunkrooms containing 8 bunks plus one leader's sleeping alcove with one single bunk. A screened porch is located in between the bunk rooms and may be used for sheltered seating and meeting. Single cabins offer one bunk room with 8 bunks plus a leader's sleeping alcove with a single bunk. A small screened porch is attached to each single cabin. Use of the cabins for a retreat can also be combined with tent camping if preferred.
